Go, placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there is in silence.

As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons.

Wisdom cannot be found in books or travel, in learning or philosophy.
it is acquired by practice only.

... be at peace with God, whatever you conceive him to be ...

20's, 30's, 40's ...

Carey's Nostalgia Week came to a fun-filled climax at the week's end. Besides a lot of "Golden Oldies", there was entertainment to suit everybody's fancy. The Goldfish swallowing contest was one of the highlights of the evening. The Andrews Sisters even made a guest appearance, as did Gary and the Greasers. Even Shirley Temple was able to make it. The Jitterbug, Polka, and the Waltz were exhibited to show the dance styles of the era. Harry Carter was the emcee for the evening's festivities. Everyone dressed for the occasion.

Andre' Crouch in Concert ...

Rock-gospel sensation, Andre Crouch entertained the Hattiesburg Area with an excitement filled concert this fall from the Reed-Green Colliseum on the Univ. of Southern Mississippi Campus. The Baptist Student Union of Cary College co-sponsored the concert, enabling many students to attend. The evening proved to be a success as the program closed reverently.

upper: Andre Crouch displays vocal ability.

lower right: The Disciples support Mr. Crouch.

Trick or Treat?

Halloween was recognized successful with the traditional Halloween Carnival. The highlight of the evening was the Horror House, which is the creation of the Serampore Players. Other events that attracted students were the Cake Walk, Sponge-Throw and etc ... Following the Carnival, "Willard" was shown to top off the night.

That's Entertainment

The Variety Show this year proved to be very entertaining. There was a wide variety of talent, including singing, dancing, dramatic skits, and comedy routines. Miss Rebecca Thompson was mistress of ceremonies. Cherryl Thompson took the first place award, and Elaine Ross and Jan Fell took second and third places respectively.

top right: Elaine Ross was awarded second place for her presentation of "When you Smile", by Roberta Flack.

See You in September . . .

Perspective Student Day is an annual event at Carey. It gives high school students a chance to tour the campus and get the "feel of a college atmosphere". Often Perspective Student Day helps a student make up his mind about college. This year was very successful. A large part of this was do to the excellent entertainment that was provided. A large amount of creative ability is one of the many attributes that so many Carey students possess. Perspective Student Day displayed so much of this talent.

lower left: The William Carey College Choral puts the finishing touches on successful day.

"Bah Humbug"

Bah Humbug! The Serampore Players winter production was Scrooge, the musical adaptation of Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol." The production was just the right affair to get everyone in the right Christmas spirit. The poignant story about a penny pinching old miser turned out to reveal the real meaning of Christmas. The musical numbers were written and arranged by Keith Thompson. Madelyn Daniel set all of the choreography. Despite all of the last minute details, the confiscation of a goose, and last minute prop checks—Scrooge proved to be one of the most successful productions at Carey College.

Dear Santa,

The annual Christmas Banquet this year, provided for an entertaining evening. Mrs. Virginia Scott and Mr. Jack Rogers appeared as Mr. and Mrs. Claus. There was a wide variety of entertainment. Gary and the Greasers made a guest appearance to the delight of all the girls. Little Ralphie and the Rascals performed a short rendition, and little Marjorie and the Rowdenettes sang a song. One of the special attractions was a musical rendition from Coach Stephenson's bell ringers choir. The Great Borsarge performed many amazing feats of magic, including the attempted decapitation of Dr. Noonkester. During the program, Dr. Noonkester awarded Gail Hall with the Christmas Card Award. A good time was had by all.

Regeneration

Regeneration was the theme of this year's Homecoming activities. Commissioner of Entertainment Mary Jane Britton executed a well planned week of events. The climax of the week's festivities was the presentation of the court and the basketball game against Montevallo. Myra Howell and her court provided a beautiful half-time program. To top off the excitement of the evening, Gary Coleman made a last second shot to win the game for the Sader's 71 to 72.

Afterwards, there was a party in Wilkes Dining Hall, where the Rock Band Hannibal provided the entertainment.

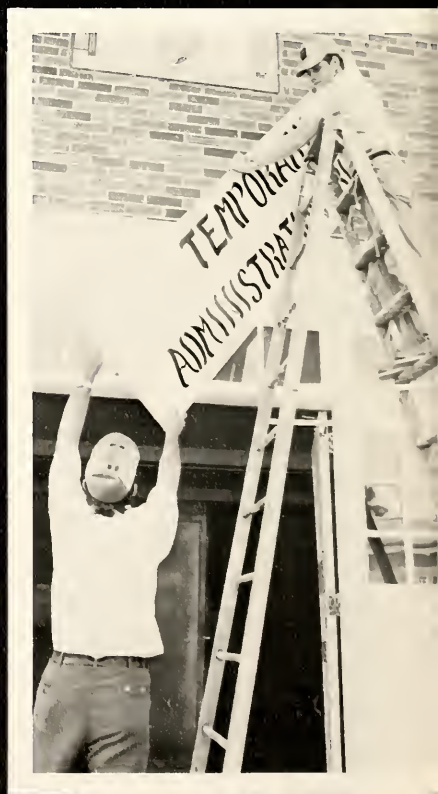

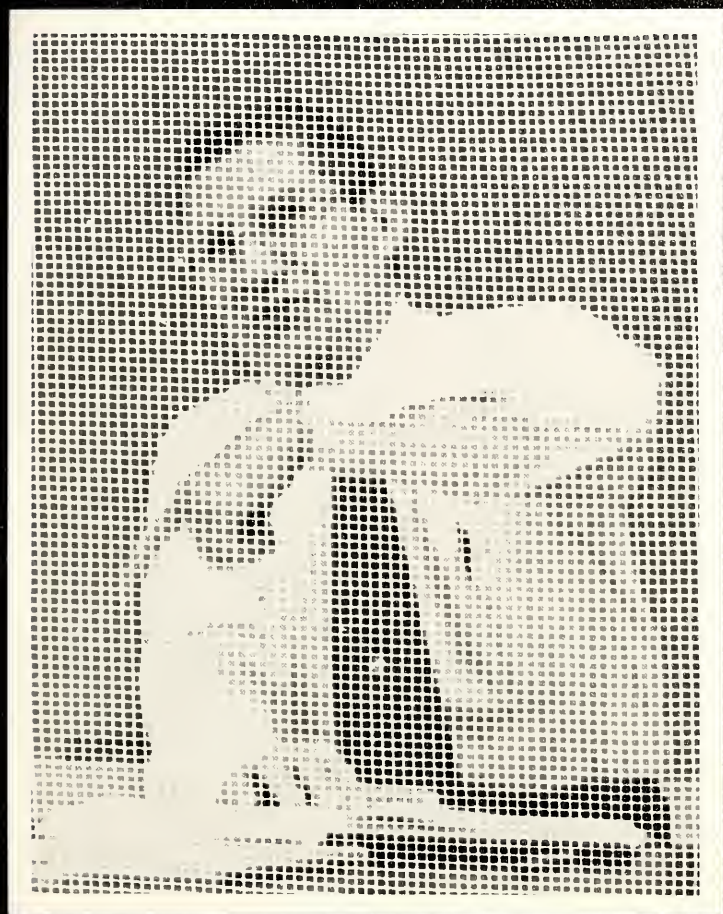

ESTABLISHMENT

Take kindly the counsel

gracefully surrendering the things of youth.

the president

We live in a fantastic age. As Americans we have prospered and we have grown. We have the highest standard of living in the world. But unhappily this material prosperity and growth has left us little time or energy for reflection, for artistic creation, or for mystical contemplation. We think of achievement as physical achievement. Too often we equate worth with "success" and gauge success by its dollar value.

William Carey College attempts to help young people to turn from these crude measures of achievement. The American dream is something more than a paradise of material wealth, unreflective ease and hoggish self-indulgence. The social and political fabric of western civilization rests on the belief that "man shall not live by bread alone ... that the life is more than the raiment." It is because of this belief that education—not just vocational training, but education of the whole person—is an essential element of our American ideal.

It is my hope that the 1975 Crusader will remind you through the years of the distinction of Carey College.

english, mathematics

The English department offers a wide variety of courses to capture the interest of all students. The purpose of the English department is to help the student learn to write with a high level of accuracy and effectiveness, but not to the detriment of fluency and imagination. The department also aims at developing in the student the ability to read critically and appreciatively the best of English, American, and continental literature. Social Problems in Literature, Fantasy Literature, and Women in Literature are some new and interesting courses that are being offered this year. Under department head, Dr. J.V. McCrory, the teachers work hard to make their classes both beneficial and enjoyable for their students. Credited with valuable instruction are Mrs. Georgiann Holliman, and Mrs. Grace Smith.

Struggling with proofs, sliderules, and a myriad of polygons, unknowing students soon realize that math involves the ability to reason as well as comprehend numbers. Students begin feeling as the year progresses that overwhelming problems can turn to welcome exercise for the mind. The Math department helps to give each student enrolled in the department an insight into the nature of mathematics and to acquaint him with some of its fundamental principles. It provides training for those students whose major interest is mathematics, for those preparing to teach mathematics in secondary schools, and those seeking industrial employment. Under the valuable instruction of Dr. Gaston Smith and Mr. Warner Fellabaum mathematics can be interesting and entertaining.

science, social science

Alert minds, attentive spirits and strong stomachs are needed of the science majors—from the hum-drum routine of studying atoms to struggling with the metric system, frustrations because of homework, and that weak feeling after a dissection. Stifling smells sometimes filter the air as students eagerly experiment in the Chemistry Lab. Dr. Rose West, Dr. Olivia Tomson, and Dr. Frank Pinkerton are the Professors under the leadership of Dr. David Gruchy, department chairman. The development of an educated person is furthered by means of the wide variety of related courses. Newly purchased maps, and a new reading room help to extend the students' knowledge through means other than textbooks. The aims of the department are: (1) to provide students with an appreciative insight into the complex background of our contemporary world, (2) to correlate the significant facts, ideas, and trends in the various social sciences, and (3) to provide basic courses and training for those who wish to qualify as public school teachers or to pursue graduate study. Heading the History and Social Science department is Dr. Milton Wheeler. Mr. Jack Rogers, Mr. Wayne Perrott, and Dr. Wheeler help students become personally effective, enjoy social relationships, and accept responsibilities as citizens in an ever changing society.

education, psychology

The purposes of the Department of Education and Psychology are to prepare competent and qualified teachers for public schools, to offer an undergraduate major in psychology which will serve as concentration for the liberal arts student and as a preparation for graduate study for the professional psychologist, to help the student develop a means of self-expression and to encourage and promote creativity through an understanding and appreciation of art and beauty. The Psychology Department has a new experimental lab, a new electronic calculator for instructional use, and a new research room for faculty research. Counseling Psychology, Practicum in Reading, and Sociological Foundations of Behavior are some new courses being offered this year. Heading the department of Education and Psychology is Dr. Clarence Thurman, Dr. Mack Welford, Mr. William T. Rivero, Mrs. Elma McWilliams, Mrs. Iris Brantley, and Mrs. Virginia Scott make the department of Education and Psychology an interesting and enjoyable area to study.

religion, philosophy

The Religion Department of William Carey College has a unique program offering professional degrees to students going into church-related work. The department seeks to aid the student in his interpretation of life, acquaint him with his spiritual heritage, enrich his appreciation of Christianity, and offer sound undergraduate preparation for the students who will not be able to pursue theological studies. Dr. William Clawson, Dr. Ralph Noonkester, Dr. Dorman Laird, Dr. Jerry Oswald, and Mrs. Marjorie Rowden teach courses in this area in co-ordination with Dr. Don Stewart, who is head of the Religion Department.

business administration

Business Administration is an integral part of the Carey College program striving not only to provide vocational training and marketable skills for employment, but also to provide understandings and appreciations necessary for functioning as an efficient producer-consumer in our American enterprise system. In this dual role, the business administration department seeks to develop in its students ethical standards of conduct, personal satisfaction and pride in a job well done, satisfactory social and emotional adjustment, vocational competence and business awareness necessary to choose a useful and satisfying vocation permitting fullest use of individual interests and abilities. The department's purpose is not merely to prepare a student for his first position following graduation, but to instill in each student a desire for learning that will continue after he has graduated and taken his place in the business community. Mr. Jerry King, department head, Miss Kathleen Arrington, Mr. James McCay and Mr. James Shivers are instructors in this Department.

art, home economics

The Home Economics Department functions for the purpose of achieving and maintaining the welfare or well-being of homes and family life in an ever-changing society. It is an applied field of study built upon many disciplines. The majors in home economics are qualified to work in four clusters of employment, namely: (1) education, (2) home economics services, (3) journalism and communication, and (4) technical and service oriented programs. A community service course instituted this year involved nutrition and food service study for foods preparation workers in the local Head Start Schools. This and other courses were taught by Mrs. Evelyn McClure and visiting professors.

Individualized self-expression and an applicable admiration of the fine arts are revealed through the finished paintings displayed in Tatum Court. History through Renaissance and History since Renaissance are two of the academic courses being offered this year. Different levels of art, ranging from first year Art to Painting II with individualized courses in between such as Design and Art for Home and Dress are offered for the fine art lovers. The Department strives to help students exercise their creative talents for their own pleasure as well as a professional career. Miss Lucille Parker is directing students as head of the department.

music

Undergraduate or graduate level, church music, music education, ensemble, music therapy, music history and literature, therapy and electives are all available at William Carey College. The general aims of the music study at Carey is to help the student discover and develop his own musical capacities and interests. The implications and applications of this discovery may contribute to the student's cultural, intellectual, and character development; his self-expression and recreation; or his practical use of music as a profession. Dean Donald Winters heads the department. Mrs. Jennie Breland, Dr. William Bufkin, Miss Josephine D'Arpa, Dr. James Downey, Mrs. Helen McWhorter, Mr. Cleamon Downs, Dr. William Levis, and Mrs. Mary Vermillion provide valuable instruction in these fine arts.

speech and theatre, foreign language

Confidence is the key word in mastering the art of speaking. Inspiring self-assurance with spirited certainty, Mr. Quave opens the minds of students in many different courses that are being offered this year at Carey. The objective of the Speech and Theatre Arts courses is to improve the students habits and abilities in communication.

something in a language that only a select few understand can now be a reality. This year's foreign language department offers Reading German which is for students, especially for those going on to graduate school who want a reading knowledge only, and Spanish culture which is offered in the middle of the day so housewives with children in school may attend. The aim of this department is to successfully and lucratively teach a skill which will be useful in reading foreign literature, in research, in a professional area, or just for fun, to develop in the student a "linguistic sense" whereby he may be able to compare his native tongue with other languages, and to give a thorough understanding of the culture and everyday life of another people. Dr. Thomas Lott, chairman of the department of Foreign Language along with Dr. Don Stewart, Dr. William Clawson, and Mrs. Ilse Brown provide instruction in the language (listening, speaking, reading, and writing), literature, and culture.

physical education, library

Physical fitness can not be stressed enough in this day and age. Every participant in physical education can find his preference from such a selection as Tennis, Volleyball, Coaching, Golf, and many other interesting and important courses that are being offered this year. The purpose of the Department of Health and Physical Education is to provide opportunity for the individual to learn activities which are invigorating and enjoyable and will lead to positive physical, emotional, mental, and spiritual growth. Providing a fresh outlook to this widely-chosen area are Dr. Benjamin Waddle, Coach John Stephenson, and Mrs. Linda Eades.

All Libraries are a great necessity and are utilized by many people of all ages. Students depend on the many books, magazines, and newspapers for assigned research papers, quick answers, and just pleasure reading.

Under the supervision of Mr. Young Lee and Mrs. Marilyn Pound, this facility initiates a Library Club for students interested in learning more about library science.

R.E.A. Forms Youth Teams

The Religious Education Associations is a campus organization for students interested in the field of Religious Education. The Association seeks to provide for the students fellowship, counsel, instruction, and opportunities for discussion. Some activities planned for this year include visiting convalescent homes, ministries, and a youth team.

Members: Deborah Thomas—Pres.; David Brown—V. Pres.; Gary Nichols—Sec.-Treas.; and Tony Myrick—Reporter; Dr. Joel Ray is sponsor.

Theta Kappa Sig Pursues a Sound Theology

Theta Kappa Sigma is a society whose purpose and reason for existence is the informal pursuit of information and understanding about questions of a theological and/or philosophical nature. Membership is open to all interested students and faculty members of William Carey College. Twice a month a guest speaker is invited to visit the meeting and speak on religious and philosophical issues.

BSU Provides Strong Christian Fellowship for Students

The Baptist Student Union is a campus wide organization whose purpose is to provide the contemporary college and university student with an avenue for Christian growth and expression. It gives students the opportunity to find the unique life style and fellowship that comes from the christian experience. This year the BSU had a weekend retreat at Paul B. Johnson State Park along with the BSU from USM.

The BSU Council is a group of students elected to direct the body of the BSU. Council Members: Conrad Howell—Pres.; Paul Parker—V. Pres.; Wally Hartel—V. Pres. of Development; Patti Stribling—Sec.-Treas.; Deborah Thomas—Growth Chairman; Al Fike—Witness Chairman; Randy VonKanel—Choir Director; Dr. Jerry Oswalt—Director; Tim Thomas—Asst. Director

The Cobbler Goes From Monthly to Weekly Publication

In the patchwork of campus activities, the newspaper is the thread that unifies them into a pattern. The cobbler attempts to keep the students on campus informed of activities on campus and also to include feature stories. This year the Cobbler staff decided to publish a weekly edition instead of a monthly one. The aim of this publication is to keep the students informed, enabling them to participate more easily in campus activities. "The Cobbler Footnote" was chosen as the title because the Cobbler staff felt that they were serving as the footnote for both the Cobbler and the campus.

Members: Myra Howell—Editor; Earl Blake, Bryant Barnes, Julian Graham, Joe Murphy, Lois Nelson, Florence Prater, Martha Waller. The staff's sponsor is Mrs. Ilse Brown.

"The Best Things in Life Are Free ..."

This year thirteen lovely ladies competed for the title of Miss Carey College. 1975. The evening was filled with an air of excitement and expectancy.

"The Best Things in Life are Free," this year's theme, was exhibited by four vivacious student entertainers. The audience was enchanted by their song and dance routine.

Elaine Ross, Miss Carey 1974, crowned her successor, Cherryl Thompson. First runner-up was Beth Rainer, second runner-up was Bobbye Wood, third runner-up was Phyllis Walker, and fourth runner-up was Dorothy Roberts. Phyllis Walker was presented the coveted Miss Congeniality Award, and Bobbye Wood received the Talent Award.

The judges for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Jed Mihalyka of Vicksburg, Dr. Albert Gower of the University of Southern Miss., Mr. James Cox of Laurel, and Mrs. Glenda Meadows Grubbs, 1972 Miss Mississippi, of Hattiesburg.

An attentive and receptive audience saluted the new Miss Carey with a standing ovation as she made her first walk. The evening proved to be delightfully entertaining and successful.

dedication

Here's to you!

There aren't many changes
That go unnoticed here.
There's always some willing
To talk about what's happened—
Since they arrived ...

This year we dedicate this issue, of the 1975 Crusader, to Mrs. Virginia Scott and Dr. Dorman Laird. Directing the Office of Student Affairs, they reflect understanding, friendship, patience, humility and constant concern toward those individuals with whom they come in contact.

We have grown to love and admire these two lovely people.

We remember ...

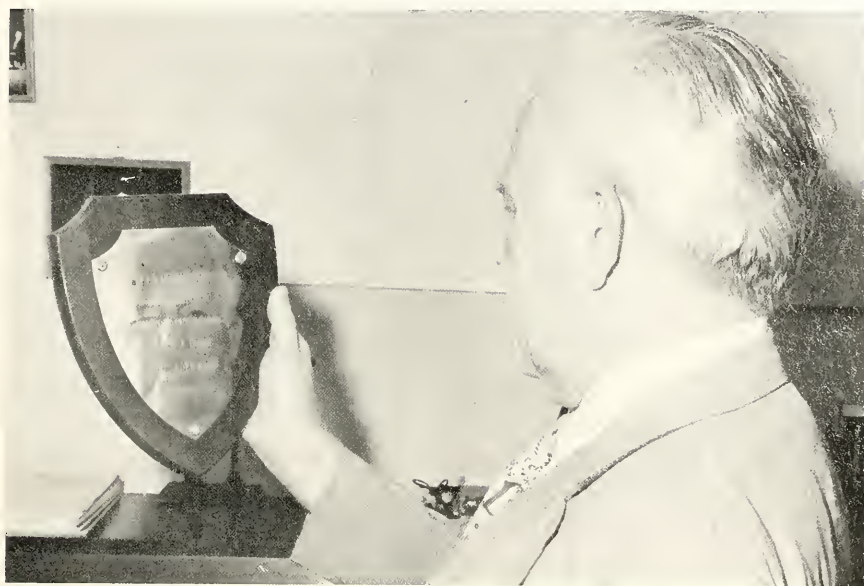

We respectively recognize Dr. Benjamin Dunford in memory. Dr. Dunford was very dedicated to his musical career. He spent hours at his piano, because he performed nothing that was less than perfect.

He served as an inspiration to his students to do their best in all areas of their lives, not just their musical careers. Known for his great love of telling stories about himself, he was often quoted as saying, "The funniest stories are those told on yourself."

Dr. Dunford was very close to his wife Nancy Dunford. Together they functioned as a close unit on the music faculty, each being tremendously talented in both teaching and performance. They both shared a part of their personal lives everyday with their students.

We, at William Carey College, suffered a great loss at the death of Dr. Benjamin Dunford.

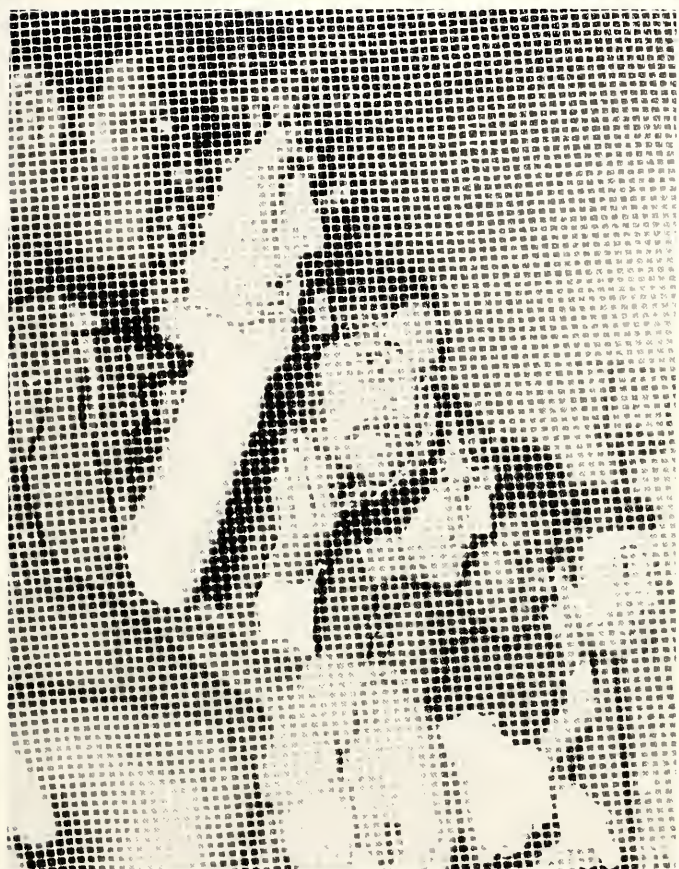

CHALLENGE

editor—Kathy Pigott, Kay Warren

... do not distress yourself with imaginings.
many fears are born
of fatigue and loneliness.
Beyond a wholesome discipline,
be gentle with yourself.
Nurture strength of spirit to shield you...

Here We Go Saders!

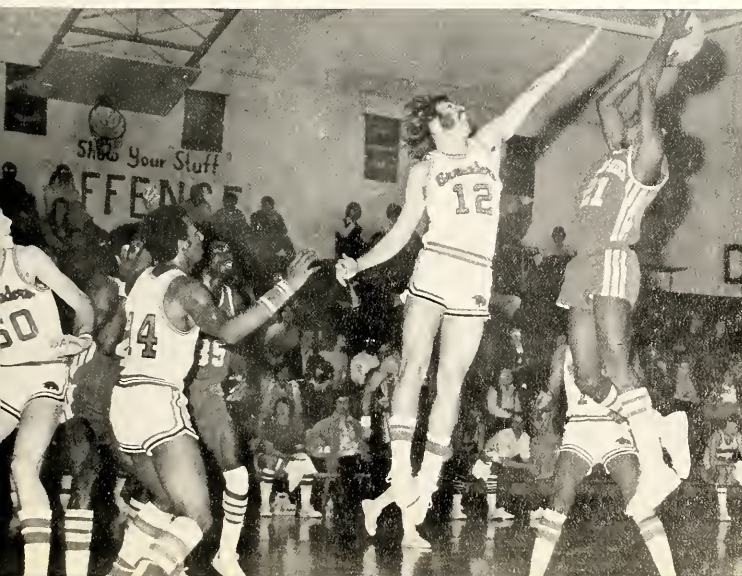

Coach John Stephenson began practice with the fifteen team members in the early fall. From then on they knew basketball season had started. After many weeks of hard practice and numerous games with near-by junior colleges, the team looked forward to regular season play. The Crusader team members are: Gerard Lymuel, Jody Patterson, Gary Coleman, Richard Perry, John Renfro, Ted Cannon, Ronald McMorris, Bill Mason, Mike Reynolds, Robert Adams, Mike Rehwinkel, David Kropff, Roger Miller, Billy Browning, Joel Pike, and Wally Hartel—trainer.

basketball

The Crusaders started off the season with three successive wins. The first game of the season proved to be one of those wins. The Crusaders edged past the Bethel team, 88-85.

A see-saw affair mounted until the final moment of play when the final basket made the score 80-79, in favor of Carey over Whitworth.

Millsaps could not overtake the surging Saders as they notched their third straight win, 87-67.

The next game proved to be most disappointing. Carey could not contain the Jackson State Offense and lost the game. 75-108.

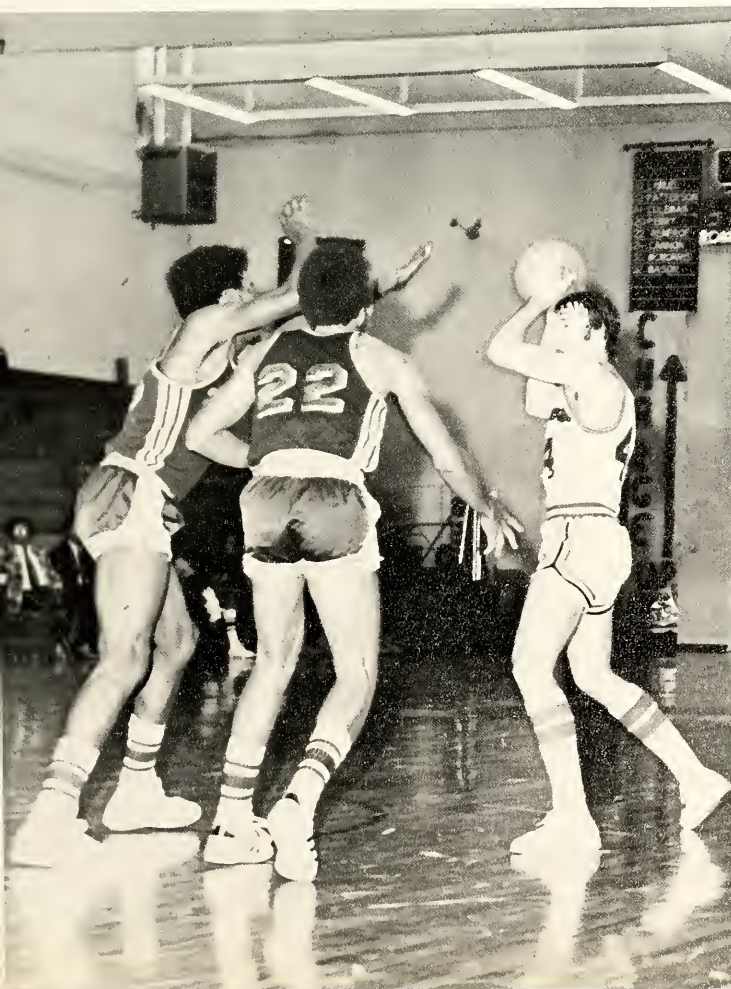

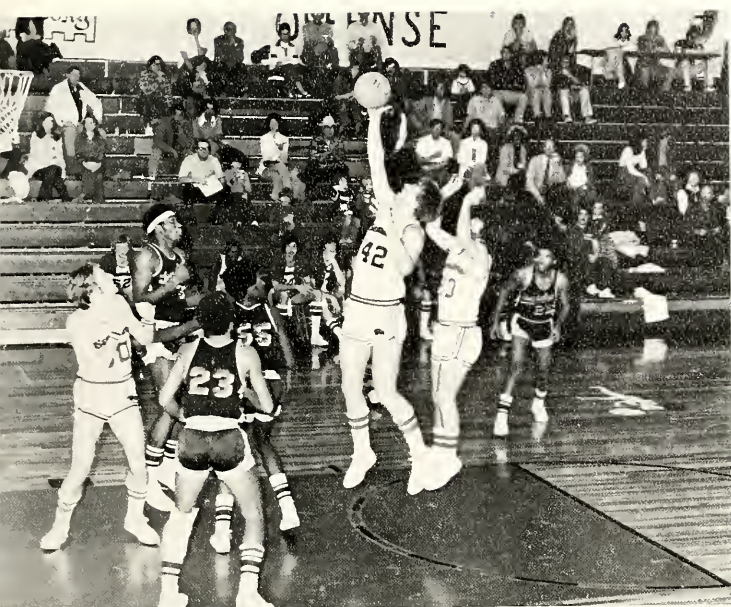

In tournament play Carey suffered their second loss of the season to Mississippi Valley State, 65-88.

In another close game with Whitworth College, the Saders ended up with a 63-62 win.

It was not as easy the second time around, but Carey showed Millsaps the Sader spirit and won 86-80.

The Saders suffered the third loss of the season at the hands of Tougaloo College, 84-91.

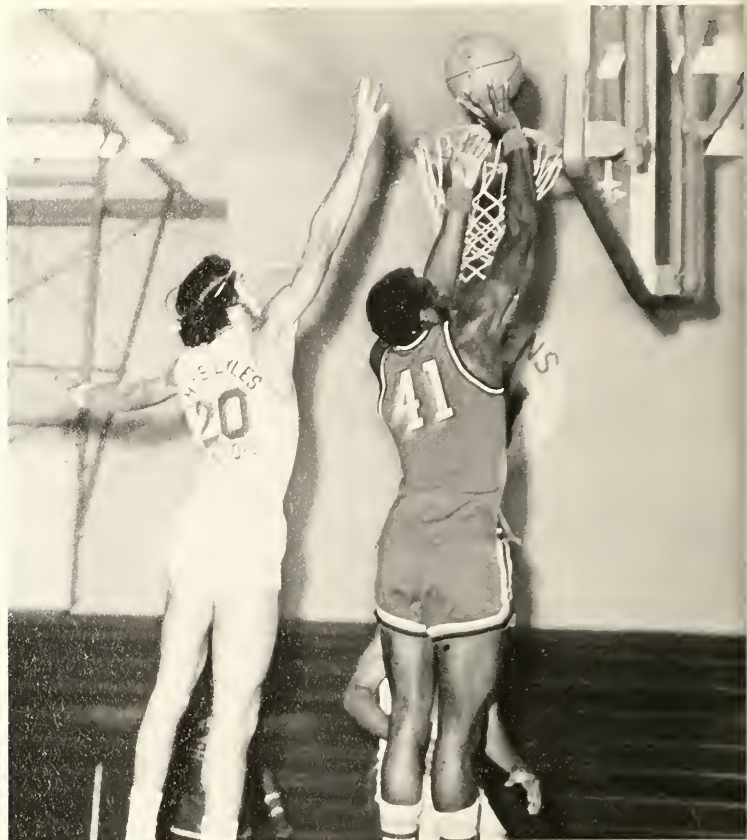

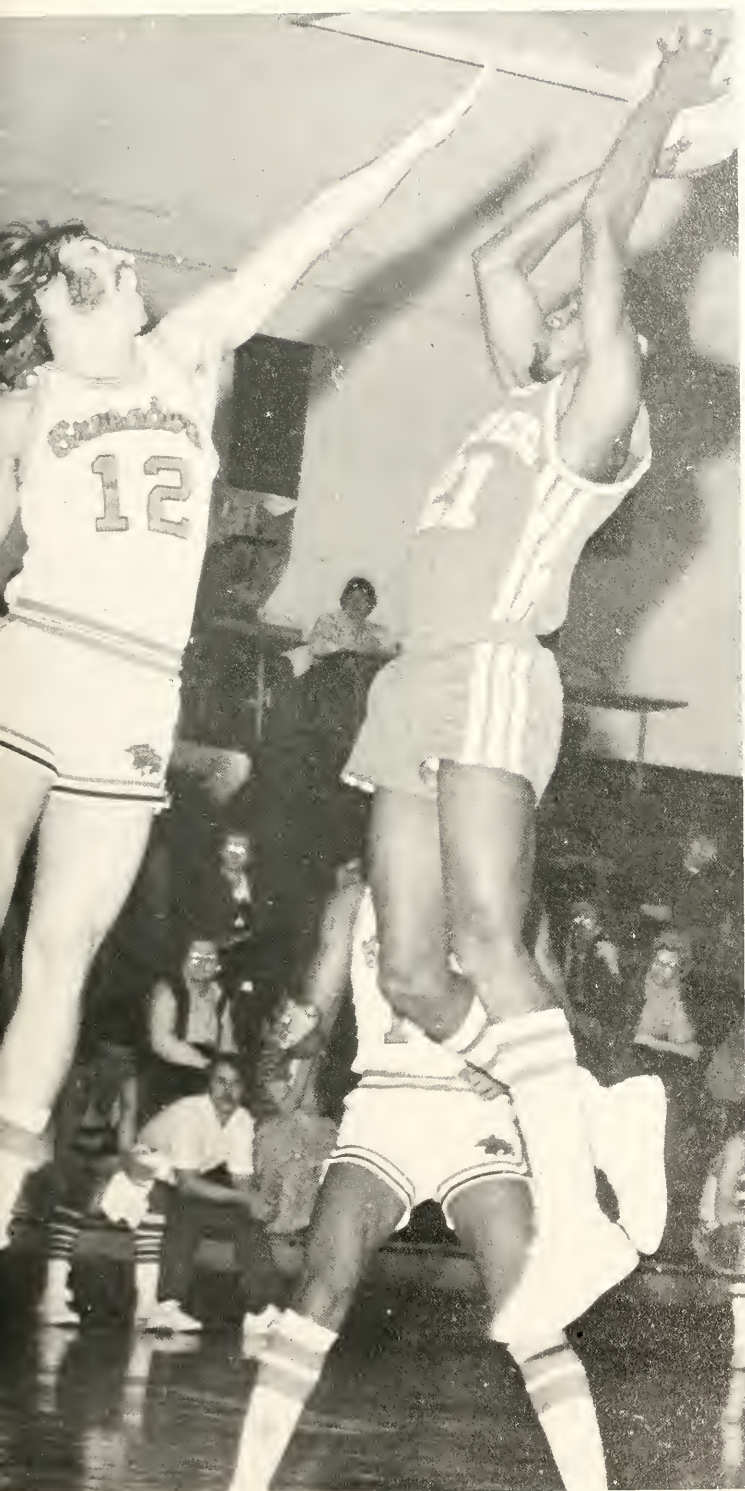

The roof caved in for the Sadlers during the second half as Spring Hill dropped Carey, 87-70.

The Sadlers turned in a strong defensive performance in the second half, but Troy State held them off, 83-82.

Birmingham Southern upset a powerful Sadler team with the final score, 49-78.

The Sadlers upped their record to 6-6 with a win over Huntingdon, 61-59.

The Crusaders were handed another loss by Spring Hill College, 76-61.

Carey chalked up their seventh win of the season by a five-point margin over Millsaps College, 81-76.

The Sadlers ran out of ammunition near the end of the game and surrendered a loss to St. Bernard, 73-67.

Montevallo ripped the nets for a 72-48 defeat of the Sadlers.

Carey was trimmed by Belhaven College, 79-71.

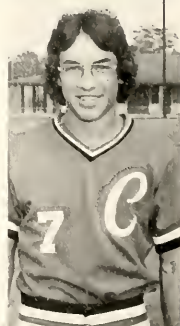

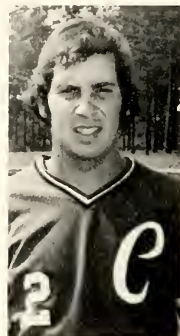

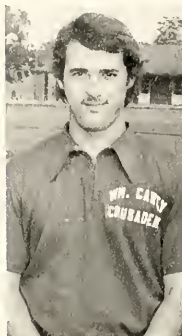

The defense-minded Athens team handed the Sadlers a 70-55 loss.

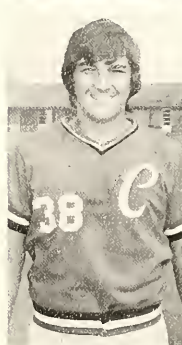

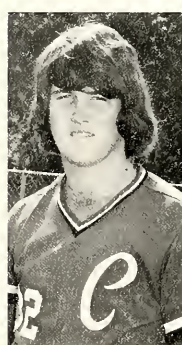

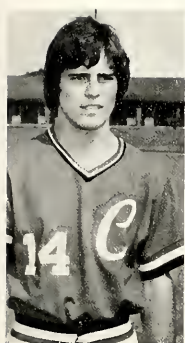

With an overpowering defense, Athens put the full-court press into operation downing the Sadlers, 88-84.

Carey was unable to hold Tougaloo as they stunned the Sadlers, 79-63.

intramural sports

The intramural program had the best season ever. People actively participated in flag football, basketball, and softball. A new dimension was added to the basketball teams this year: female players. Everyone enjoyed the change.

Tournaments were held at the end of each season for the teams with the best records. Those teams that did not have quite as good a season, helped former opponents by going to the games and keeping up the team spirit.

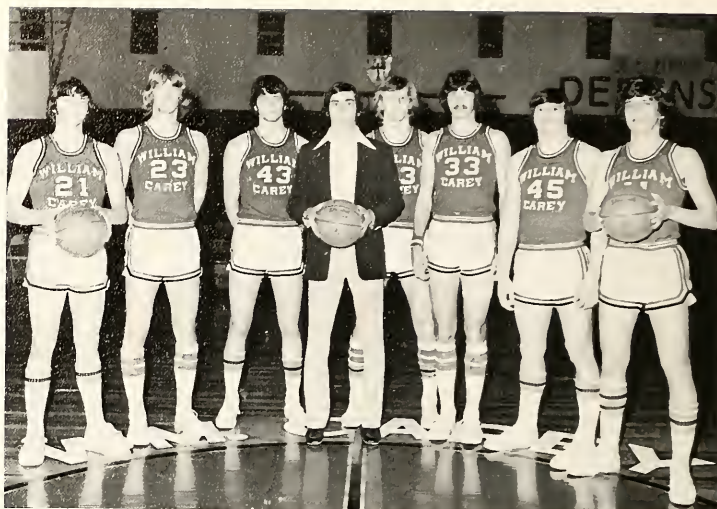

Good Christian fellowship was enjoyed by everyone who participated. The teams and their loyal supporters are very proud of the way the teams handled themselves under the stress and strain of a ballgame. Teams are already being planned for the next season, and it is hoped that it will be even more enjoyable to go to the intramural games in the future.

Down the Court!

The freshman team of William Carey College, under the coaching of Bobby Halford, looked forward to a good season. This team gives the members a chance to get in more playing time. The team members are Jackie Pons, John Renfro, Mark Quillen, Billy Browning, Ronald McMorris, Carl Merritt, and Joe Howard.

lower left: Bill Daughdrill watches the game so he can write the statistics. Kaay Warren helps by keeping the scorebook.

Set it up!

The girls, under the coaching of Mrs. Linda Eades, had a futile season. As an extremely young team, they played hard, but they never could quite get it together. The girls had the privilege of playing in three tournaments: Mississippi State University, Belhaven College, and University of Southern Mississippi. In the regular season, trips were made to Gulf Coast Junior College at Perkinston, University of Southern Mississippi, and Belhaven College. Mrs. Eades feels that this season has given the girls enough experience to have a better season next year. The team members standing are Sherry Larrimore, Dorothy Roberts, Ann Banes, Debbie Hegwood, Kathy Pigott, Suzi Como, and Betty Jones; seated are Yvonne Long, Barbara Marsh, Darlene Clark, Cassandra Rogers, and Linda Sullivan. Not pictured are Pam Denham and Zandra Williams.

Be yourself ...

Especially do not feign affection.
Neither be cynical
about love;
for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass.

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to the many people who have helped make this publication possible.

First to Mrs. Evelyn McClure who served as friend and sponsor.

Second to this year's associate editor, Cherryl Thompson, I extend a special thanks for all the understanding and personal guidance she offered this year.

To all the Section Editors and staff members who worked long and hard on this issue, thanks again!

Next a personal expression of gratitude is extended to Mrs. Virginia Scott, Dr. Dorman Laird, and Dr. William Clawson.

We also appreciate the use of the lyrics to "Desiderata" written by Max Ehrmann.

I sincerely hope that the 1975 Crusader has fulfilled everyone's expectations and that it has captured the fantastic happenings that made this year what it was.

Sincerely yours,

Phillip Threadgill
